

2019—THE BEST IS YET TO COME

Summer Youth Intern

Welcome Dalton Gross, who is with us this morning, and who will serve our teens this summer as the Youth Intern. Dalton is a junior at Faulkner University in Montgomery, majoring in Biblical Studies. He has experience as a youth intern for two summers in Valdosta, Georgia. He comes to us highly recommended by his professors at Faulkner and by ministers at the Landmark church in Montgomery where he is the worship leader for the campus ministry weekly devotional and also leads a college student small group.

Town Hall Meeting—

Last weeks' Town Hall Meeting with Brad and Heather Jiles was very positive. Some questions were asked afterward, and there was not time to have good discussion. It is now planned to have another Town Hall meeting with Brad, next Wednesday night, February 13, at 7:00 p.m., to discuss your doctrinal or functional questions. It is requested that your questions be submitted in advance; so Brad can reflect ahead of time. Hand your question to one of the elders or respond to the email which was sent out. Certain questions, the elders will take the lead in handling them as they arise. However, it is important to discuss your questions, as we would with any potential candidate for ministry at CVC. Obviously, questions cannot be fully covered and decided in one meeting. All questions are welcome, even though there may not be time to cover all of them. We will make an effort to address as many as possible. As we discuss, let's be working in Christian love for unity and consideration of everyone, as we always do in this church family.

"Everybody Always"—

Bob Goff's newest book is the jumping off place for a semester spent studying and practicing how to love "Everybody Always". Ladies please join us this Tuesday, February 12, at 10 a.m. to put our Bible study in action! We will be visiting and delivering goodies to several people that need encouragement. Babysitting is provided. Questions? Talk to Dana or Peggy.

Prayer meeting for new minister search—

Twice a month, everyone is invited to gather on Sunday morning at 9:00 a.m. in room 109 to pray for our church, especially for two things. First, for the Lord to pour out his Spirit and give us the spark we need to be revived, reignited, and renewed in our faith and service. Second, to bless us to find the right person to be the next pulpit minister for CVC. The next meeting will be January 27.

Read James 5:16 and pray in faith, believing that prayer has great power in its effects.

Another prayer ministry—

There are cards in the lobby for anyone to write prayer requests which will be prayed for by all who are willing to join the prayer ministry. Everyone can join in, each Sunday at 8:30 a.m., to pray for the requests on the cards as well as anything else on our hearts. This group will join the other one at 9:00 on the weeks when that meeting is taking place. In this way, there are two great prayer initiatives which will strengthen our church. This will enhance every ministry and every individual, helping us be the Lord's light to the community.

World Missions

Chris & Sarah, Iddy, Ruth Michael, and Abby Jones are in Malindi, Kenya. Please continue to lift them up in prayer for their ministry to so many who are in great need. Maurine is there to help them for a few weeks so keep her in your prayers also.

Ringroad School and Alara School in Kisumu, Kenya, where Chris and Sarah worked for several years are still being supported by several people at CVC. These two schools are growing and doing very well. Lives are being changed, children are given a hope and an opportunity to know God and prepare for life.

Sami Holman is in Bethlehem, Israel, where she has begun teaching for a year in a private school. We're excited to keep up with God's newest calling on her life.
